

ARCANA CON XXX – 2012

FIRST BORN

‘Who is your Daddy? And what does he do?’

- Objective: This is an important and emotional Round for me personally... At last years Arcanacon I missed round 6, because I had to go to the birth of my first child, Jacob Daniel. This was my miracle, for one lucky player this year could be their Miracle in Round 6...
Also... If anyone has something cool they wish to trade for a first born son... I have one... ☺
- Deployment: Pitched Battle (Long table edges p.92).
- Victory: Annihilation (Kill Points as per p.91).
‘Wipe Out’ rule (p.90), will be in effect for this mission.
Total Victory: Your most expensive HQ holds the objective & you have Wiped your opponent out.
Draw: Both Players have the same number of Kill Points.
Note: In the case of a tie, if a player has captured the Objective then they win the game.
- Special rules: Whose yo Daddy! - Place 1 Objective marker in the centre of the Table (move terrain as little as possible to ensure its central location), this objective represents something important to your most expensive HQ (Nominate your most expensive HQ choice PRIOR to deployment). This is objective is worth 3 Kill Points towards your total if controlled at the end of the game.
This Objective may only be controlled by your expensive HQ choice.
All other units including troops choices may only contest it.
- Game length: Ending the Game ( p.90)
